Sowing the Best

Now that we are healed and delivered from our old life let us sow positive seeds to our family and friends

Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows.

Galatians 6:7 (NIV)

If we sow positive things we will reap a good harvest

Here are 5 things we can start to sow:

1 2 3 4 5

1. Sow Positive Attitudes

I. Be positive in your words

Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen.

Ephesians 4:29 (NIV)

II. Sow good works

In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven.

Matthew 5:16 (NIV)

III. Be kind and loving in how you relate to others

Get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of malice. Be kind and compassionate to one another…

Ephesians 4:31–32 (NIV)

2. Sow Integrity

Have nothing to do with godless myths and old lives' tales; rather, train yourself to be godly. For physical training is of some value, but godliness has value for all things, holding promise for both the present life and the life to come.

1 Timothy 4:7–8 (NIV)

Walking in integrity and godliness

The Bible says, “Train yourself to be godly.”

To be godly means to live a God centered life

Integrity is the quality of being upright morally

To live in integrity means to live on what is right all the time.

No compromise with sin.

3. Sow Spirituality

You are the light of the world
—like a city on a mountain, glowing in the night for all to see.

Matthew 5:14 (NLT)

Sowing spirituality means you are bringing the presence of God into your home, school and workplace

How to sow spirituality?

I. Manifest the Christ-like character

II. Bring prayer

III. Bring the Word of God

IV. Bring the cell group into your home, schools, and workplace

4. Sow Discipline

Discipline is self control

Discipline means:

Self control; not impulsive and uncontrolled

Order and proper management

Sticking to right priorities and activities

Be self-controlled and alert. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour.

1 Peter 5:8 (NIV)

I discipline my body like an athlete, training it to do what it should. Otherwise, I fear that after preaching to others I myself might be disqualified.

1 Corinthians 9:27 (NLT)

5. Sow A Correct Image

To sow a correct image is to be at peace with yourself

Having a correct image means:

You have a positive self esteem.

You feel good about yourself.

You have a healthy outlook of who you are in Christ.

Having a correct image means:

You see yourself the way God sees you. Unique, precious, lovable and important.

You see yourself as a winner in Christ and not a failure.

For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well.

Psalms 139:13–14 (NIV)

I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

Philippians 4:13 (NKJV)

Sowing the Best:

1. Sow positive attitudes
2. Sow integrity
3. Sow spirituality
4. Sow discipline
5. Sow a correct image
